

Estimated Costs for Harvard students only
(Mid February to mid July – mid July to mid December)
CHILE PROGRAM

Program Cost for one Semester

| I. Program Fees Paid Directly to Harvard | |
|--|-----------------|
| Tuition & Fees Includes two-week orientation and language program, special Harvard activities, seminars, local trips, two organized trips: Atacama Desert and Buenos Aires, each for 3 days, term-time internship, enrollment for credit in Chilean Universities, and overhead administrative costs. | $16,500 |
| Housing Family Stay: room, board (3 meals a day), and laundry. | $3,750 |
| *Payment in full of $18,750 is required by July 1st for fall semester and by February 1st for spring semester. | |
| Insurance Health Insurance for the semester is required | |
| A) Harvard University Student Health Plan (HUSHP) | $1,195 |
| *1) BlueCross BlueShield (BCBS) (may be waived through HUHS) *2) Student Health Fee (SHF) (may be waived through HUHS) | |
| B) If student waives HUSHP above | $521* |
| *Documented continuing insurance coverage is required | |
| Total paid to Harvard University directly on term bill (with HUSHP Plan) | $21,445 |
| II. Personal Out Of Pocket Expenses (ESTIMATES) | |
| Estimated personal expenses including, books, materials, transportation, some travel | $3,450 |
| Estimated round-trip travel from U.S. to Chile (*student makes own reservations) | $1,400 |
| Chilean National ID and one-time fee to enter Chile from the USA | $170 |
| Estimated total of study abroad, including travel (one semester) | $26,465 |

*Price subject to change